Thanks, Avram. It is great that you have added me to your e-mail list. I have only just recently discovered your web-site and am devouring your articles! I find your courage to stand for truth along with your clear thinking and straight-talking to be very refreshing and stimulating! Thanks for the great ministry.

Love to you and Ruti.

Dear Avram,

We have never met, but I feel like I have known you for a while. Yo'avi has been sharing with me about you and sent me a number of your teachings. I must testify that I experience in my spirit that Yahveh and Yeshua has called you and anointed you for the work you are doing.

Yo'avi sent me two pdf files about the Sabbath that you sent to him. What a blessing. I ask your permission to put them on our website: <http://www.fcca-int.com> and more specifically on the submenu: <http://www.fcca-int.com/messiah.html> or if you have this and more teachings that we can link to we would like to do so.

I believe that Yeshua through Ruach Haqodesh called the fellowship and the He wants to do a new thing through us. That is why we are so thankful Yo'avi and yourself for the input we've received; Yours of course more indirect until now (I hope for more direct input).

Yahveh bless you and guard you;

Yahveh make His face shine upon you, and show favour to you;

Yahveh lift up His face upon you, and give you peace.

Shalom Bro. Avram

Greetings in the name of the Lord.

As I keep on reading the scriptures in the format Yeshua has helped you to put together (Scripture Readings at <http://seedofabraham.net/ScriptureReadings2016-2017.pdf>), it is one more witness of what God wants to do through you. God has enriched my study of the Bible. It's my prayer that those of us in training for ordination will help others employ this wonderful tool and the other tools on the website of the Seed of Abraham.

The writers of the New Testament were well acquainted with the Old Testament so when they saw Messiah fulfill what was prophesied they readily acknowledged the truth because their link to the O.T was strong. The Old Testament was Holy Spirit breathed as the rest of the Bible, God's Word given to man so that man can come to God and worship him who is the Creator of all things. I have been blessed as I look at God's Torah in which God's will is revealed. In fact, I now see why Yahveh had to send His One and only begotten Son, man having failed to meet the just demands of a holy God. He sent Messiah so whoever is found in Messiah will escape eternal condemnation. Then He gave the Holy Spirit to this man whose heart has been changed so that he could walk in obedience and celebration of a gracious God.

I have been touched by the love God. Yeshua indeed has come through the door of my heart. I am eating and drinking from Him.

Shalom Avram. Thank you for responding. I am from just outside Cleveland, a suburb called Parma. I came to know about you through my sister, who I think just happened to come across your website while surfing the net. I have read several of your teachings, and Bless Abba, they have provided clear and absolute understanding of His Word. I especially love Law 102! I definitely still want to meet with you and Ruti. I would like to come to Ramat Gan...it will give me a chance to get out and about. Although I will need you help with directions and bus numbers. Can I bring a friend? Also, I won't be able to come until after February 28. I so look forward to meeting you both :)

Avram, It was an absolute blessing to be able to give to you! Actually, I was very excited about giving to you...I just couldn't wait! After reading a bit more about you, I am overwhelmed with our similarity of convictions, spiritual experiences and our pains.

Several years ago I cried out to the Lord while sitting in church. I asked the Lord if this was all there was to being a christian. I knew everyone in that church and it seemed that there was no one that could teach me more...I knew there was more...It seems that I was starving spiritually and I needed real meat. After about 6 months or so, I went through great sorrow from a relationship. I cried out to the Lord and He led me to Psalm 119, which is so beautiful to me because they are all about the Word of God. Psalm 119:18 (especially) Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy Law. I cried out for Him to truly open my eyes to His Word...and boy did He! He opened my eyes to the Catholic church, christmas, easter...all of the pagan holidays...and to the 'Feasts of the Lord'...the Lord's 'Holy Days'...not satan's 'holidays.'

I really respect you because you are not afraid to walk in the truth, no matter what everyone else is doing (star of david, kipa, etc.) I am the same way and it has been very difficult for me to find like minded individuals. It has made life down right hard at times, but that's ok because I have learned that I truly have a Love of the Truth. I absolutely love it...it blows my mind on a daily basis. For years now, I have had meat to chew on every second of every day! That's not an exaggeration, my mind is constantly chewing on the Truth!

May Yeshua Bless you!
Thanks and Have A Great Day!

Avram,

I have known deep inside that I have a heavenly Father since my earliest memories at age 4 and 5. I was raised Baptist. I read the entire Bible (Old and New Testament) from cover to cover starting in 3rd grade and finishing in 6th grade. I had many questions for my teachers because I could see that some of 'man's traditions' were mistakenly being taught as the Word of the LORD.

I was baptized on February 12, 1967. I have many clues concerning my ancestry that indicate that I may be an Israelite. I also have many miraculous confirmations from the LORD on that topic as well, which is a long discussion that I won't go into at this time. One clue is that since I was a teen, I have had a deep yearning to one day make Israel my home. I cannot explain it, but if I am an Israelite, then the prophets have already explained it. I have read all of your teachings on the Seed of Abraham website, and at this time I have not found any of your teaching that I disagree with.

You seem to be willing to follow scripture wherever it leads, no matter what the whole of Christendom is doing, and I find that VERY refreshing and bold. My search for other people such as yourself has led me through different congregations, and it is truly difficult to find people who are serious about the Word of the LORD.

Hi Avram,

I read, re-read, and re-read your article. I must admit I found it fascinating and intriguing. This article really blew my mind away (Yeshua—God the Son at <http://seedofabraham.net/Yeshua-God-the-Son.pdf>). Your article certainly made me think and I appreciate that. It added new insight that is truly a blessing in seeing things through new eyes. It is hard to overcome our Greek perspective in understanding the true God of Israel, but I keep trying.

I am a young child of God who is trying to do and walk in His divine way. I am very much inspired with how you gave your teaching The Sabbath and Yeshua at <http://seedofabraham.net/The-Sabbath-and-Yeshua.pdf>. From your teachings I found a lot of challenge for myself and many in my denomination. I am in Kenya...how can we serve together? Dear Avram

Thank you for all your teachings—I have only read a few and find a lot of truth in it and a lot more of the Bible makes sense. May God bless you in all that you do for Him.

I have just one question:

Ex. 23:19: The first of the firstfruits of thy land thou shalt bring into the house of the LORD thy God. Thou shalt not seethe a kid in his mother's milk.

This verse—I know the Jews say that this means you shouldn't consume dairy together with meat. Is this what it means or does it mean you can't cook a kid in his mother's milk?

Hope to hear from you soon.

Shalom Friends!

Having gone over all the articles for Passover, Feast of Unleavened Bread and First Sheaf as a way of preparation for Passover, two points really impressed me:

The first point has to do with the covenant that God made with Father Abraham. God promised Abram (his name at that time; Gen. 15) ALL the land of Canaan, but the only land in Canaan that Abraham ever owned was his (and Sarah's) burial plot—a very powerful symbol for us. It's not until hundreds of years later, in the days of Joshua, that the Hebrews came into the land of Canaan and took possession of their inheritance, but the ultimate fulfillment of the promise comes when Messiah Yeshua reigns as King of Israel for a thousand years from this Jerusalem (Rev. 20:3-6; also Ezk. 40-48). Then the Sons of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob will be saved (Rom. 11:25-29) and dwell in peace.

We, like Father Abraham, have been promised something, too (glorification), but we will not see it in this lifetime. We don't get to be glorified until we stand before Yeshua on Judgment Day, but just as God brought the promise to Abraham to fulfillment in Joshua, so too, He will fulfill His promise to us. He is not a man that He should lie, and He is not a God who is not able to fulfill His Word. He has sealed His promise to us with the sacrificial death of His Son. There was nothing greater that God the Father could have done to assure us of His promise to us.

The second point that stood out for me was that Yeshua, after having been ruthlessly lashed by the Romans almost to the point of death (as was their custom for the crucified) was then led to the crucifixion site where they offered Him some wine mixed with myrrh—a drink used to deaden the senses for all the crucified Jews, but Yeshua refused it (Mk. 15:23).

Then they crucified Yeshua by driving large metal nails straight through His hands and feet to the wood behind. The pain was excruciating.

This was the price that Yeshua paid that our sins might be forgiven and that we might be filled with His Holy Spirit. He has taken us out of the Kingdom of Satan and brought us into His glorious, eternal Kingdom. I am humbled and so grateful that God the Son would do that for you and me. He truly loves us with a love that we cannot fathom and He is so worthy of our lives being totally devoted to Him.

Worthy is Messiah Yeshua forever and ever!

We serve a truly awesome, incredibly loving, powerful, forgiving and wonderful God!

May the Presence of the Lamb of God be with you at your Passover Table on Monday night,

Avram and Ruti Yehoshua

Ramat Gan, Israel

“For I do not desire, brethren, that you should be ignorant of this mystery, lest you should be wise in your own opinion, that blindness in part has happened to Israel until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in, and so, all Israel will be saved, as it is written: “The Deliverer will come out of Zion, and He will turn away ungodliness from Jacob. For this is My covenant with them, when I take away their sins. Concerning the Gospel they are enemies for your sake, but concerning the election they are beloved for the sake of the Fathers. For the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable.” (Romans 11:25-29)

God will yet be glorified through the Sons of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob!

Sir,

First, I would like to say thank you for your amazing work on the Seed of Abraham web site. I have just this week stumbled across it and am amazed at how powerfully the Rauch is using you to reveal truth. I have been looking for truth for a few years now and your site has helped me greatly thank you. I am Zimbabwean, but live in Pretoria, South Africa. I am of mixed race my mothers father being Jewish. I am burning with desire to 'know' as you say the 'Living Torah.'

Your article on Acts 21 just blew my mind and shallow theology!

Thank you once again for you work. May the Rauch continue to use you in mighty ways.

Shalom Bro. Avram,

Thank you, you have spurred me to go further in the things of God. Your encouragement has been of great help, as I keep on using the family reading schedule and also reading of your articles on the web. We have to engage people in such a way that they will need to open the Bible, get them to desire to know God anew. The Holy Spirit can use the printed word as a spark to start a fire. The fire has started. I thank Yeshua for making me part of what the Father is doing.

Thank you Brother Avram for calling us to come along.

You're right in that many sects of the Messianics are messing up this wonderful Awakening from the Lord. And sure enough, the Adversary has been busy again, just like with the first talmidim (followers) of Yeshua—'You're not under the Law'—that had us end up where they are today in Christendom—a pagan mess.

Avram,

Blessed Shavu'ot to you and your family.

I greatly appreciate your essay on Shavu'ot. I will be celebrating it with myself this year, but I will revel in the freedom I have. The exquisite beauty of the delivery of the Word and the Spirit is breathtaking. What a celebration this day should be!

Your revelation is astounding that, of course, Torah cannot bring salvation. It was given to the Israelites after their deliverance, for instruction on how to love Yahweh, just as we are commanded to do as well. That is why I am learning it! How should I love my God? He instructs us!

I came across your web site while reading Acts. I greatly appreciate the truths which you share, and the love and fearlessness in our Saviour which you present and represent.

Thank you for this blessing.

Hello, my name is Jessica Matheis and I attend the church that is pastored by Nathaniel Martell (whom I know you are in contact with). He gave me your paper (Law 102) to read along with a few other things. I just wanted to take this opportunity to thank you for writing these papers. Reading Law 102 explained things to me that I had tried to understand and had not been able to find anything that wrote it in a lingo that I could follow and understand. Your writings are so easy to read (which I am sure is because you are directed by the Holy Spirit when writing them). Pastor Nathaniel and my husband are getting ready to read through your book together and meet weekly to discuss it. I am so excited to read it when they are finished and hear everything they have to say about it. Thank you so much for being obedient to the Lord and in turn being such a blessing to me and so many other people! My husband also lived in Tulsa...he graduated from Rhema and actually his brother attended ORU as well...so, funny that there is that connection. Small world after all :)

Dear Avram,

I ended up reading your work for hours today. First of all—May our the Lord Jesus Christ bless you. And may your sons come back to you. I am waiting on a daughter to come back to me (she is now 17). I had heard at some point in the past about the Sabbath not being Sunday, but that now we are in Jesus' Sabbath rest, so it doesn't matter any more (every day is a Sabbath). But the ten commandments are still the ten commandments. Remember the Sabbath. Funny it's written like that. I need the Lord to show me how to remember the Sabbath.

I had not seen before re: Daniel 7:25 and the changing of the laws and times. I always thought that would be when the anti-Christ is on the earth and in the very last days. But it seems the laws have changed.

I appreciate what God has done in your life. I appreciate your insights into the Word of God. I am really blown away by the idea of all the Law still applying to me. Ouch. For years I have asked God to forgive me for my known and unknown sins. I think I will need God's grace to understand what he wants me to do.

Changing traditions, diet, whoa!!!! :(I've gone against the grain in other areas of my life and it's not easy—it's lonely. I appreciate your example. I'm thankful you wrote your testimony of Jesus' faithfulness to you.

I just wanted to write because I really appreciate your insights. I feel that finding your info. today was God. He will show me the way.

Thanks,

John

Avram writing: All the Law is still in effect, as Yeshua Himself declares (Mt. 5:18-19), but not all the Law applies to any one person. For instance, there are laws that apply to only farmers, but if one isn't a farmer then that law doesn't directly effect then, nor are they expected to do it. There are laws, though, that apply to everyone, like the Sabbath and the Feasts and the dietary laws. One must know the Law in order to understand which laws God wants him to walk in. We're to walk in all the Torah (Law of God) that applies to us.

Shalom Brother Avram,

Just finished 'The Lifting of the Veil.' One of the most well written books I have ever read. I was tremendously Blessed!

I would greatly appreciate your helping me to understand Shemot (Exodus) 12:48 regarding the ger ('stranger') having to be circumcised (page 254 in your book), but why Gentile believers today are not required. As a Gentile believer in Yeshua I do walk in Torah as it applies to me. I understand also that my heart has been circumcised (Col 2:11). I would like more clarity on how this all works together as I would tend to take Ex 12:48 very literally.

Just stumbled upon your website and found quite a bit of support for several areas the Holy Spirit already was talking to some of us here in Sweden about...Many things have concerned me in the movement as I don't want to bring the American messy-anic movement to Sweden (others already have) such as the lack of support for the Kipa in His Word, strong influence of Kabbalah or indirectly through non Yeshua-believing Rabbis etc.

Found your page Goodbye Messianic Judaism! at <http://seedofabraham.net/Goodbye-Messianic-Judaism.pdf> and believe I was already moving towards this direction, somewhat insecure, as a lot of the American leadership doesn't seem to see this. Many lack self reflection and only focus on the faults of the Church Fathers, while opening the back door to errorous rabbinical/kabbalistic teaching and falling in the opposite ditch.

Coming out of both ditches, into the wilderness, is exactly what God has been dealing with us to do here in Sweden (not all in my little Sabbath-group understands this yet).
