This morning after my prayer time, I was reading Mark 15, about Yeshua, and when they “nailed him to the stake.” I had to stop. Yeshua showed up. What I then heard was, “I am calling you to walk with Me like you’ve never walked with Me before. I am calling you into My service. Say ‘Yes’ to Avram.”

Greetings Avram,

I joined your email list a few months back and your teachings have caused me much grief, in a good way. My beliefs have been shaken to the core. I am a Bible college graduate and I am at a point now that I don’t even know what I believe anymore. I don’t think I know the same Jesus that you speak of, and quite frankly I don’t think many Christians do, either.

In spite of everything I have been taught, and in spite of everyone I know believing the same way, I feel you are right. Your teachings have really challenged me and opened my eyes. I have accepted a cheap grace and have trampled on God’s holy Law. If you are going to be in Cincinnati I would love to come to meet you and hear you minister. I live in Columbus, Ohio so I’m not too far away.

Please send me the time and location of meeting if it’s OK that I come. I look forward to hearing from you.

Thanks,

Jeff Razey

After sending my article on The Day of Atonement to Sammy Scriven, pastor of New Faith Ministries in Raeford, North Carolina USA, he wrote,

You know the more I study and study the more I am coming to believe that the Father is calling mankind to do things His way and any other way He is not going to honor. The people of Yahweh are to do as He says, we do not have the freedom or should I say we should not take the liberty to live as we desire and tell Him that He has to accept it. Avram, I just do not think it is going to work like that. As we have accepted the blood of our Lord Jesus as our atonement and now studying (turning from the false way of worship that we have been taught) to do things His way, I am coming to believe that the Father is not accepting a lot of the stuff we once called worship.

Everything that you send us I search the Bible and ask the Lord to help me to see through the Holy Spirit of what you have sent is right or wrong and so far all is well. You can rest assured that if I have a question about something I will ask you about it, while seeking the answer from the Father in His word.

Avram, we like the path of truness that we are on. We know that is is true worship. We lost many friends when we turned from Sunday and all the many false holidays and the many other things that we are finding to be right, but because we are seeking to please the Father and not man, we have learned to accept the fact that loss will happen and we move on. They tell me that what we are doing is called ‘works’ and I tell them that what I have done is to learn how to work my faith in the blood of the Lamb and the commands that the Word tells me the people of Yahweh must keep. They feel like they must keep a day of worship and they keep Sunday. I tell them I just desire to keep the day that He said to keep. I tell them they have chosen to keep holidays, but that my wife and the church we lead has chosen to keep the biblical holy days. People get mad at this, but we hold onto our faith and move on.

We are learning to be strong in the Lord and be thankful even the more for the TRUTH and for the will to live the Truth. We, the church, are ready for Atonement and asking the Father to search us and show us the things that are in our lives that He is not pleased with.

We love you and your wife very much and are so thankful for you both and the teachings that we have received from you. The funny thing is 95% of the stuff that you send we were already doing. It is as if the Father used you to let us know that we have heard Him correctly and are doing the right thing.

Thanks again,

Sammy Scriven
