Shalom Avram:

May Gods blessings be poured out abundantly upon you and you family today and may we walk as He walked, in Spirit and Truth.

First of all I want to thank you for opening my eyes to my Hebraic roots. Since reading your works I have continued to search deeply as the Holy Spirit has led. I am experiencing my own personal revival as I learn more and more about my true heritage and my relationship to Israel. I have come to see how the Hellenistic and Greek influences in the early Church has led to a seperation and even the ostracizing of our Jewish roots and His chosen people, I am forever grateful.

Thank you for your time and counsel.

Shalom,

Michael

Hello Avram,

Shalom and God Bless you and your family.

I hope you don't mind my emailing you, a complete stranger. I'm not sure if you speak with women or if only your wife does but I don't have her email address. I would gladly speak with her if you prefer. Not sure what your custom is and I want to be respectful.

My name is Christy and I have been reading your website and it makes a lot of sense to me. I'm sort of stuck right now between Evangelical Christianity and Messianic Judaism. I became a born-again believer when I was 9 in Sunday school. I've been in the Nazarene church, Methodist, Baptist basically been evangelical my whole life. I've got ministers and missionaries in my family too. I even went to Tyndale Bible college.

Just recently I've understood that being Torah observant is very important to our Lord. I was studying the history of Christmas and Easter and the Sungod Sunday I was completely shocked to know the evil origins of it all. I really don't know who to talk to about this because my Minister doesn't understand why I want to be "under the law" and this new Rabbi I'm afraid to speak to because he bashes the church constantly, like every Shabbat. I'm kind of afraid to tell him I come from a Christian background.

I just don't know what to do?? I don't fit in with the Baptists anymore because I don't celebrate christmas and easter and I don't believe in replacement theology anymore because it's a terrible lie. I did try a "church of god international" congregation closeby because they keep the Shabbat and biblical feasts but then I read Herbert Armstrong material and he is like a Mormon or Jehovah's witness so I stopped going there right away they are a cult I believe. Glad I found out early on.

I went to a Hebrew roots congregation but they are Ephramites and I don't believe the Jews in Israel are not the "real" Jews; of course they are.

I started going to a Messianic congregation and they are lovely people; I just don't know if I can live an Orthodox Jewish lifestyle. I stopped eating pork and shellfish but is it really wrong to eat meat and dairy together ?didn't Yeshua and the angels eat some curds with a calf with Abraham? Like how much of being Kosher is biblical and how much is rabbinical? My husband is already upset with me for eating clean animals only, and if I try to do the no meat dairy thing he will really be upset with me since he cooks the meals.

I don't want to hurt Yeshua's feelings; I've been doing that for far too long by being lawless and not following Torah. Could you please help me? Maybe give me some advice what to do? You know Yeshua very well I can tell. Any help you could provide would be greatly appreciated. Sorry my email was long. Thank you for reading.

God Bless you,
Your friend in Christ,
Christy

Shalom Avram!

I desire to learn God's word from the Hebraic perspective. Your articles on the web have allowed me to see things more clearly and gave me a better understanding. I believe we have to return to the simplicity of God's word.

Thank you and remain blessed in Yeshua's name!

Patrick

Dear Avram

Shalom!

The Lifting of the Veil is a book inspired by the Holy Spirit- it's an endtime gift to mankind. It resolved the acts 15- enigma by blending the gospel of the apostle paul and peter in a true biblical perspective. The work is very advanced and the inspiration is from above. It opens the eyes of true believers to the hypocrisy of the church, which has deceived mankind for so long. The book is loaded with biblical facts and references.

It exposes Hellenic pagan teaching. How can the Church convince us that the Messiah of Israel has abolished the Law of Moses, whereas the word of the Messiah says differently in Mt 5:17? This os the only book i have come across in my life that reveals the true nature of the Messiah and His teaching of Torah observance and the way of righteousness. Lifting of the Veil, as the name implies, has truely lifted the veil of mankind out of ignorant and deception. It puts to rest the mistranslated and twisted work of the Apostles Paul and Peter and gives us their true biblical perspective. I will seek for permission of the author to reprint million copies for distribution in Africa.

Sincerely,
Donal Maika,
Nigeria

Avram responds:

Thank you, Donald. Printed copies are nice, but there's no need. I offer it for free: The Lifting of the Veil—Acts 15:20-21 at <http://seedofabraham.net/The-Lifting-of-the-Veil.pdf>.

Blessings from Above,

Avram

What I was wondering is that Strong's Concordance lists 44 OT prophetic Scriptures on specific subjects about Messiah and their fulfillment recorded in the NT. The teachers of the law knew these Scriptures like the back of their hand and saw them fulfilled in front of their eyes. I'm wondering if their doctrine had blinded them in a way like Protestant doctrine had blinded me for so long, until Kalev got tired of arguing with me and said 'Go talk to Avram.'

It was humbling; I had to admit I was wrong about many things that I would of died for, would of called someone a heretic for not believing. Anyway, looking at them, looking at myself, my prayer is the Holy Spirit lead me into the Truth by revelation or through others; I don't care, but one of my constant prayers is that I not be deceived into believing a lie.

Avram, thanks for your work and your council. As you've freely received you freely give, and I do thank God you have come into my life. I don't know what kind of a house I would of built if I hadn't read your works. May Yeshua bless you and Rudi and your labor for Him.

Good evening Brother,

Thank you for taking the time to share this word. I greatly appreciate it. It is wonderfully refreshing. My family and I are visiting my wife's aunt in Colorado. I have shared your message with a few friends. Thank you so much for your continued commitment to Papa God.

The invitation is still there for you and Ruti to come visit us in Ohio if you ever make it this way. We will continue to pray for you and your ministry. Let us know if we can do anything to help.

Blessings from above,

Chris Clark

Achi Avram,

You are an inspiration!

I am enjoying reading your New Moon 6 newsletter. It is good food for the spirit.

The economic system in Zimbabwe makes it difficult to make progress.

But by the hand of YAH, everything is possible. I am making steady progress at the farm. Things had been slow, but are picking up. We are on schedule to take advantage of the Spring season in a few weeks.

Stay Blessed Achi...

Shalom Avram

Greetings and praise Yeshua. Hellen and I thank the Lord for the good He is doing to us as a family and those of the household of God. Thank you for this News Letters.

I have gotten wonderful background information, which I am going to employ in my teachings. The depth into which you go as you teach us on the life of Yeshua is astounding, how pray that Yeshua will take my life and use it to extend his kingdom.

I must die to my pride. You have stated that 'pride is essentially who we are on our sinful, carnal, fallen adamic nature.' The picture which was coming to mind is as if we are covered from head to toe with the veil of pride, a sorry state to be in, but the good news is that in Yeshua this veil is taken away so that the holiness and the monumental work of God is put in operation to have his Law in the heart of a believer, which is accomplished through the Spirit of God so that we can walk in the newness of life.

It is a detailed letter, which both encourages us, as it also gives highlights to praise God for. The update gives us a roadmap and also is a reminder of things which we are to pay attention to. We in Kenya thank God for all those have come out to support the work of The Seed of Abraham in our country. We have more yet to be done, but in all these I rejoice knowing that our God is faithful and his promises are dependable always .

Praise the Lord,

Sammy Maseru; Elder and Minister
