Finish the following sentences by choosing the correct biblical answer. If you get all five questions right you win a free lunch with Avram and Ruti Yehoshua (answers appear at the bottom of page 2).

1. The Apostle Paul states, 'For we know that the Law' (of Moses),
 - a. has been done away with in Christ.
 - b. only applies to the Jews.
 - c. is spiritual.
 - d. was given to the Jews by aliens from Mars who tricked them into thinking that it was from God, and so, the Jews are 'out to lunch'!
2. According to the Apostle Paul, in the book of Romans (his greatest theological letter), the Law of Moses,
 - a. was a curse given to the Jews because of their sins against God.
 - b. was only until Christ came.
 - c. is holy.
 - d. was a Jewish plot to enslave the world with worthless rules and regulations.
3. Jesus warned His Apostles about the coming Tribulation of Jerusalem (which would take place in 70 A.D., about 40 years after Jesus spoke this), and that He hoped that they would not have to flee from Jerusalem, either in the winter or,
 - a. on Christmas day because Jesus loves to hear the little children singing Christmas carols.
 - b. on Easter Sunday because that would interfere with all the sunrise church services held in His honor, and He loves to see the little children roll the painted Easter eggs and eat the chocolate Easter bunnies.
 - c. on the 7th day Sabbath of the Jews because He knew it was a day of rest and not intended for flight or anxiety.
 - d. on the 5th day of the 4th Jewish month, when the moon is in the constellation Aquarius and aligns itself with Jupiter. On this day it would be extremely difficult to flee from Jerusalem as the gravitational pull from Neptune causes tremendous stress to the leg muscles, resulting in decreased ability to run or to flee from danger.
4. The Apostle John, in his book called, The Revelation of Jesus Christ, considered by many to be written more than 60 years after the resurrection (about 96 A.D.), wrote that the "patience of the saints" consists of faith in Jesus Christ,
 - a. and the doing of good works.
 - b. and tithing.

- c. and keeping the Commandments of God.
 - d. and taking one's pastor out to lunch after Sunday service even if his message caused half the congregation to fall asleep.
5. Jesus said that anyone who broke the least of the commandments of Moses and taught others to do so,
- a. would be one of His followers because their righteousness would exceed the righteousness of the Pharisees who were hypocrites.
 - b. would be blessed with spiritual discernment and wisdom from God.
 - c. would be called least in the Kingdom of Heaven.
 - d. would be given two 15% discounted flight tickets to Rome to eat breakfast with the Pope on Easter Sunday, consisting of the Pope's favorite meal—ham and eggs, and chocolate Easter bunnies.

Answers

1. c: 'For we know that the Law is spiritual, but I am carnal, sold under sin.' (Romans 7:14)
2. c: 'So then, the Law is holy, and the commandment is holy and righteous and good.' (Rom. 7:12)
3. c: 'But pray that your flight will not be in the winter or on a Sabbath.' (Matthew 24:20)
4. c: 'Here is the perseverance of the saints, who keep the commandments of God and their faith in Jesus.' (Revelation 14:12)
5. c: Whoever then annuls (breaks; KJV) one of the least of these commandments, and teaches others to do the same, shall be called least in the Kingdom of Heaven, but whoever keeps and teaches them, he shall be called great in the Kingdom of Heaven.' (Matthew 5:19)
