

THE ORDINATION PROCESS FOR THE SEED OF ABRAHAM

by Avram Yehoshua

The Seed of Abraham

The ordination process is a structured biblical teaching and training in Scripture and The Hebraic Perspective, which prepares a man to be an ordained minister—elder of The Seed of Abraham as either an apostle, prophet, evangelist, pastor and/or teacher. In the days of the Apostles one could go along with Paul or Peter, and ‘a Timothy or Marc’ would emerge to be sent to congregations to show them the Way by example and teaching (1st Tim. 1:5-9). If you were here with me we could do the same thing, but not being here we can do the ordination process through prayer, Internet and email.

This teaching and training is also open to any man or woman who desires to be taught The Hebraic Perspective (THP), but not for ordination (but if he senses during the process, or after, that Yeshua wants him to be ordained, all that he has learned will be applied to it). This is a great way for a man to learn THP for his own understanding, as well to be a spiritual leader to his wife, children, congregation and community.

This teaching and training is also open to any woman who would like to receive all the training that a man will, but not for ordination. This will prepare her to be a biblical helpmate to her husband, and co-teacher of their children. She will also be an example and asset to many other women, etc.¹

¹ God created Adam and Eve differently. They are different physically and spiritually. Generally, God made women to be more sensitive to the spiritual realm, while men tend to be like rhinos—strong and stable, but not the lightning rod that women are into the spiritual realm. This is the reason why the New Testament does not have any women apostles, pastors, evangelists nor teachers, because these are leadership positions, and why Paul strictly forbids women from teaching men (1st Tim. 2:8-15, etc.). As he said, it was the woman (Eve) who was deceived, and that’s the point (2nd Cor. 11:3; 1st Tim. 2:4). If a woman is a leader she is much more likely than a man to lead the Flock astray by demonic spirits deceiving her. This is not a cultural thing nor a male desire to rule over women, but ‘a Kingdom thing.’ The Patriarchal order of the Bible is set, just as it is in Heaven (1st Cor. 11:1-16). As there is a hierarchy in an army, so too in a godly marriage and congregation.

God ordained men to lead and to be the spiritual head, whether the Sons of Aaron and Levi in their priesthoods (note well that only paganism had both priests and priestesses), or the Kings of Israel (no queens, except a usurper to the Throne; 2nd Kings 11:1f.), or the 12 male Apostles (Yeshua never sent any women out to proclaim Him when He was in Israel; Mt. 10:5; Luke 10:1), nor are there any New Testament women elders (pastors) nor deacons in the Church; Phoebe notwithstanding (ask for the PDF, Phoebe—Deaconess?).

Although there are many godly women named in Scripture, none of them were ordained to be pastors, teachers or evangelists (and none of them were apostles; Mary Magdalen notwithstanding, for her speaking to the Apostles about the risen Lord was only a ‘one-time event.’ Yes, in this instance she was like an evangelist, but that wouldn’t be her office or calling). Some women were prophetesses, but this isn’t a leadership position for a congregation (pastor/elder/overseer), nor did any of them have a teaching ministry in a church, nor were any an evangelist. Scripture is clear on the position that God has given to women, and it’s that of a helpmate for her husband, not as the leader of her family, nor a teacher of men, nor a pastor(ess).

Although we never see a woman pastor, evangelist or teacher in the New Testament, that’s not to say that women didn’t help their husbands in their husband’s capacity (e.g. Priscilla and Aquila; Acts 18:2, 18, 26), but it certainly wasn’t done as a woman minister of a congregation or deaconess, etc. (Gen. 3:13; 1st Tim. 2:12, 14; Titus 2:3-4; Rev. 2:20).

This biblical position does not diminish the value of a woman in any way, no more than a captain is less of a person than a general. Men and women are of equal value before the Lord, just as a ten dollar bill (say, a man) is of the exact same value as two five dollar bills (a woman). Whenever we move out of God’s order and way of living our lives that He designed, we move into carnal thinking and ways that may appear good, but aren’t of God, nor are good for us. I have taught in a number of churches where a woman was the pastor. Inevitably, both my wife

The Hebraic Perspective is the particular biblical viewpoint of understanding Scripture from its Hebraic perspective versus say, a Baptist, Methodist, Pentecostal, Messianic or Hebrew Roots, etc., theology. THP helps us to better understand who our God is and His way for us to live out our faith in His Son, realizing that Mosaic Law is still God’s standard of holiness and what constitutes sin (Rom. 3:20; 7:7, 12, 14, etc.), and exposes the false teachings of the Roman Catholic, Protestant, Pentecostal and Charismatic churches, as well as the Messianic, Hebrew Roots and One Law movements.

The most important criteria for the ordination (or the non-ordination) process is that you to love Yeshua with all your heart, have been baptized in the Holy Spirit with the evidence of speaking in tongues, and have fully surrendered your life to Yeshua, seeking to do His will at any cost.² Entering into the Process is not a matter to be taken lightly. Please know within yourself that Yeshua is calling you to begin the Process, whether for ordination or not. When you know that, contact me and ask me to consider you and why you sense Yeshua wants you to begin. I will pray about it and get back with you. You should be able to finish the Process in two to four years, depending on how much time you give it.

Resolve yourself—you will be tempted by Satan with fear and doubt, and also, assailed by family, friends and foes alike. Always seek the Lord Yeshua to strengthen you and to give you His wisdom and forgiving loving-kindness in how to deal with others. You will be able to finish the Process as you continue to walk with Yeshua.

The cost of this discipleship program could easily be $40,000, because it’s comparable to a seminary education,³ but only better because of the biblically accurate Hebraic theology and articles, etc., that you’ll be learning and the weekly (and at times daily) one-on-one interaction and instruction you’ll receive from me. You’ll learn everything from:

1. The Ark of the Covenant to why ‘an eye for an eye’ is a form of God’s righteousness;
2. From how Yeshua lived His life as our pattern to live by, to Paul’s two distinct streams of thought on Mosaic Law;
3. From the Hebrew language to the Feasts of the Hebrews;
4. From the pollution of paganism within the Church to the purity of holiness in Yeshua’s Kingdom;
5. From how to compile a worship service to how to live a life of worship;
6. From how to witness to Jews and Gentiles about Yeshua, to how to make matza for Passover, and
7. Why physical covenantal Gentile circumcision is forbidden in the New Testament, etc.

I don’t ask any money for the ordination or non-ordination process. The cost is free. I do ask, however, for your life—a life totally dedicated to Yeshua. I want you to be willing to give up everything for Him; whatever He may ask of you, for the furtherance of His glorious Name and Kingdom, in this world in darkness, which may include the giving up of your own family, friends and flock. If you walk in this divine reality you will bear much fruit for our Lord, whether you’re ordained or not. Yeshua said, “And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me.” (Matthew 10:38) and I sensed there was something ‘not right’ in the spiritual realm. Also, the women are strong, but the men are weak. I realize that in this carnal world many women have been abused, but that’s not a reason for a godly marriage, family or congregation to be otherwise. When we fail to realize this we invite chaos, sin and hardship into our lives. We’re not to bend God’s Word to our way of thinking, but to bend our way of thinking to God’s Word. If you have any questions, let me know!

For those of you who are seeking ordination as a pastor, if you don't have a fellowship or a congregation of your own yet, you'll be able to begin one as you proceed with the ordination process, as our Lord leads you. In terms of the name of your fellowship or congregation, I ask that the name of it be, The Seed of Abraham (even if you already have a name for it). This will allow your people to be aligned with ours by our name and The Hebraic Perspective.

THREE STEPS TO ORDINATION

There are three steps or phases to the ordination and non-ordination process, with those seeking ordination becoming eventually becoming licensed and then ordained ministers. The three phases for ordination are Candidate for Ordination, Licensed Minister and Ordained Minister.

1. Candidate for Ordination: If you have any questions about this paper, The Ordination Process, please let me know. You'll also have The Checklist for TSOA (both as a file on your computer in PDF and printed out) so you can both click on any article or book URL to read it and/or download it for your own files/library, and also to keep track of your own progress by marking off on a printed version of the PDF your progress. I'll also have one for you and when you finish an article, etc., I'll mark it off on my sheet as well. This way we'll both know where you are in the Process.

1. Next you'll fill out The Theological Questionnaire, which I'll email you. Send me the answers to the questionnaire in the same email, right below the questions in the space provided. (I don't want an attachment.) This way I can interact with you about your answers through the email. This may also lead to me asking you to read other articles for you to respond to, before you go on to the next article (Seeking Ordination).

2. After we finish with The Theological Questionnaire you'll read Seeking Ordination (even if you're not seeking ordination), and respond to it by sharing any insights or questions you might have. After that's completed you'll be asked to provide some personal information about yourself (e.g. name and address, etc.). Here is the order you'll proceed in:

3. The Initial Papers

1. The Ordination Process
2. The Checklist for TSOA
3. The Theological Questionnaire (sent via email)
4. Seeking Ordination
5. Personal Information (Name, Address, etc.; sent via email)

2. Next you'll begin to read and respond to these articles, etc. below, which are from The Hebraic Perspective, in the order they're listed in, which is the same order of The Checklist for TSOA. In your own Checklist (at The Checklist for TSOA) you'll be able to mark off what you've read and keep track of 'where you're at' in the reading and feedback process:

1. THE HEBRAIC PERSPECTIVE

1. Take the Quiz! Five Quick Questions about the New Testament
2. The Hebraic Perspective
3. Law and Grace
4. No Longer Under the Law?
5. The Feasts of Israel as Time Markers After the Resurrection

6. Seven Ways Yeshua Fulfilled the Law
 7. Law 102
 8. Hebrews and the Change of the Law
 9. Slavery to the Law? Gal. 4:8-11
 10. Romans 14 and the Dietary Laws
 11. Goodbye Messianic Judaism!
 12. God's Way vs Church Way
 13. Kingdom Violence—Matthew 11:12
 14. If You Being A Jew—Gal. 2:11-16
 15. Common—Acts 10:14
 16. Grace, Holiness and the Pharisaic Church
 17. Gentile Circumcision?
 18. The Sabbath and Yeshua
 19. The Lifting of the Veil—Acts 15:20-21 Reader Comments
 20. The Lifting of the Veil—Acts 15:20-21
 21. From Sabbath to Sunday
 22. When Does The Sabbath Begin?
 23. Sam the Rock Thrower
 24. Synagogue and Church Officials
 25. The Two Babylons—The Full Hislop
 26. Paul and Acts
2. Six YouTube messages on The Hebraic Perspective.
1. Introduction—The Abrahamic Call to the Wilderness; The Hebraic Perspective vs Messianic Judaism and Hebrew Roots; and The Two Distinct Streams of Pauline Theology on Mosaic Law. 62 minutes
 2. Pillar One—The Feasts of Israel as Time Markers in the Book of Acts. 69 minutes
 3. Pillar Two—The Sabbath—A Picture of Yeshua is a perfect picture of Messiah Yeshua and why it was the only thing in creation that was blessed and made holy (Gen. 2:1-3).
 1. Pillar Three—Animal Sacrifice 25 Years after the Resurrection. 75 minutes
 4. Pillar Four—The Dietary Laws and the Church. The Church uses three proof texts to justify their eating of pork, ham, bacon, shrimp and catfish, etc., but the Church's interpretation of those texts are not biblical. 87 minutes
 5. Mosaic Law—God's Holy Standard. Mosaic Law is God's very definition of how to love Him and each other. 78 minutes
 6. The Church at Mt. Sinai? Has the Church replaced Israel? Not according to God's Word in the New Testament. The Greek word for church (ekklaysia) was first used of Israel in the Wilderness at Mt. Sinai. When Paul used it he was not making a distinction between 'the Church' and the Jewish people, but rather that what God had begun at Mt. Sinai, the Kingdom of God on Earth, was now continuing in Messiah Yeshua. Also, all Church positions (e.g. elder, pastor and evangelist) come from the Synagogue. Lastly, the Four Rules of James (Acts 15:20) weren't given for table fellowship, as the Church teaches, but were a divine filter to determine if Gentile belief in Yeshua was genuine. This becomes the theological foundation for walking out one's faith in Yeshua through Mosaic Law. 98 minutes

3. When you finish with the YouTube message of, "The Church at Mt. Sinai?," you'll officially begin to read and comment on the Scripture Readings Schedule.⁴ (Before this I'd like for you to be reading the weekly Scripture lessons, but not commenting on them. This will give you more time to read and respond to the articles listed above).
 1. Feedback for the Scripture readings will be on each section of the five reading sections, not each chapter. The five sections are:
 1. Torah (Mosaic Law; the five Books of Moses; Genesis through Deuteronomy),
 2. The Prophets,
 3. The Writings,
 4. Matthew to Acts and
 5. Romans to Revelation.
 4. During this time you'll want to learn Hebrew,⁵ either from my course or from someone else's course, if you don't already know it. By the end of the Process you should be able to read, write and speak enough Hebrew to write and recite the Shema (Dt. 6:4-5).

For each article, book, and YouTube message, as well as the teaching CDs (except for the Hebrew course), I'd like for you to answer some of the following points. Please share with me, as though you were writing to a friend who hadn't read the article or book, etc., and you wanted to explain to him in a paragraph or two, what you gleaned:

1. Telling him what you saw in it that you hadn't seen before, and/or
2. How something in it impacted you, and/or
3. How it deepened or built upon what you already knew, and/or
4. How something 'came together for you,' like two pieces of a divine puzzle.
5. What did you learn? and/or
6. What insight/s did you receive? and/or
7. Was there something that encouraged you in your walk with Yeshua (i.e. built up your faith)?

I don't want a summary of what you read, but an insight or two and/or how it impacted you, etc. I want to see what you see. I want to see how the article, book or CD affected you. Tell me as though I didn't know anything about it, as you might tell a friend.

For both The Tabernacle of Moses and Shark Bait! send me feedback on each CD. The cost of the teaching CDs (including the Hebrew course) is half price for anyone in the Process. If you can't afford them please let me know and I'll send them to you for free. I want you to learn. I'm not in this to make money. I'm in this to teach you His Way so that you will live it out and be an example to many others.

When you officially enter into the Scripture readings you'll also continue to read other articles on the website and comment on them, as well as books and DVDs that are required.⁶

⁴ See the Scripture Reading Schedule.

⁵ All three sets of CDs are found at BOOKS AND CDS and are half price for Candidates, etc. in the Process.

⁶ The books and DVDs that are required reading and seeing are found in Books to Read. You'll also find all the

2. Licensed Minister: After a season of finding out how you ‘see’ the Word of God and our interaction over it, in both the weekly Scripture readings and feedback, and in your article and book comments, you’ll be issued a ministerial certificate and ministerial card with your picture and name on it, stating that you are a licensed minister of The Seed of Abraham. It will be good for five years and will allow you time to finish the ordination process. With the ministerial license you’ll be an official representative of The Seed of Abraham, with all the rights, privileges and responsibilities of a minister of God.
3. Ordained Minister: Upon completion of the ordination process you’ll be ordained as a minister and an elder of the Lord Yeshua through The Seed of Abraham (to whichever office/s you are called to). You’ll be given a ministerial certificate and card with your picture and name on it, stating that you’re an ordained minister and elder of The Seed of Abraham. You’ll be thoroughly proficient in The Hebraic Perspective and able to minister and teach people in your fellowship and on the street, etc., the way to walk out their faith in Yeshua—through the Holy Spirit and all the rules of Moses that apply to them. You’ll also know how to lead people, Jewish or Gentile, to Messiah Yeshua.

For those of you not being ordained, at the completion of your studies you’ll receive a Certificate of Achievement in having satisfactorily completed The Seed of Abraham’s intensive academic and spiritual course on The Hebraic Perspective.

DAILY LIFE

PRAISE AND WORSHIP

Begin your day with 10 minutes (or more) of praise and worship. Sing along with your favorite praise songs on CDs, etc., or sing unto the Lord a-cappella, or if you play the piano or guitar you could sing playing those. Sing out loud or softly (if you don’t want to disturb anyone). This will prepare you for the next phase.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Read the Word from the Scripture Readings Schedule for 20 minutes or more every morning. The Readings can be viewed on-line⁷ and you can download the PDF to mark your progress. The Schedule is unlike any other because every week you’ll be reading the words of Yeshua (or you’ll be in the Book of Acts), along with other Scripture sections, and of course, in a year’s time you’ll have read the entire Bible. It has proven to be a blessing for many people.

Please use this example/form in emailing me your insights and comments, etc., again, not as an attachment, but within an email. This way I’ll be able to interact with you about it:

SCRIPTURE: “If any man has a stubborn and rebellious son who will not obey his father or his mother, and when they chastise him, he will not even listen to them, then his father and mother shall seize him, and bring him out to the elders of his city at the gateway of his hometown. They shall say to the elders of his city, ‘This son of ours is stubborn and rebellious, he will not obey us, he is a glutton and a drunkard.’ Then all the men of his city shall stone him to death. So you shall remove the evil from your midst, and all Israel will hear of it and fear.” (Deut. 21:18-21) books and DVDs on The Checklist for TSOA under Books to Read.

⁷ See the Scripture Reading Schedule.

INSIGHT: I don't think one can fully understand this passage until one is a father himself. This is a passage used a lot by anti-Torah critics, who use it to make the Torah look like an extreme and harsh sounding set of rules, but really, this is a very important Scripture. First, it shows us that rebellion is very evil in the sight of Yahveh. We also learn that the role of parenthood is very sacred in His sight, and it is to be respected:

'You must honor your father and your mother that your days may be long upon the land which Yahveh your God is giving you.' (Ex. 20:12)

I think, how different would today's generation be if this Scripture was still enacted by the people?

SCRIPTURE: "For son treats father contemptuously. Daughter rises up against her mother. Daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law, and a man's enemies are the men of his own household." (Micah 7:6)

INSIGHT: This is very similar to what Yeshua said when He was walking the earth, in Mt. 10:34-37:

"Do not think that I came to bring peace on earth. I did not come to bring peace but a sword. For I have come to "set a man against his father, a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law"; and "a man's enemies will be those of his own household.' He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me." (Mt. 10:34-37)

And it also ties in with the section in Deuteronomy, and how true this section is! I think every follower of Yeshua can relate to, 'A man's enemies are the men of his own household.' I know I can! Yeshua is the greatest cause of Peace, but also the greatest cause of division! This is because men's hearts are rebellious.

The weekly Scripture reading comments are due on either Sunday or Monday from the previous week's readings, which end on the Sabbath. I won't accept feedback on Tuesday.

For Candidates: I ask that the weekly Scripture Reading Schedule be handed out to those in your Bible study, fellowship or congregation, and also, show them where they can find it on the website.⁸ You might want to make copies for them. This way not only you and your flock will be 'in sync,' but they will also be in sync with all the people associated with The Seed of Abraham.

You don't have to bring a message on Shabat (the Sabbath) to your people from the weekly readings, but you'll most likely find that as you read them, the Lord will give you a message from them much of the time. Also, the people will have already read the passage that you'll be speaking on. This makes for more of a oneness and togetherness and a family oriented atmosphere, and also allows questions about Scripture, both from what you teach on and other sections, to be brought up and answered either after the message or Bible study.

PRAYER

If you're not already doing this, please pray 60 minutes after praise and worship, and the reading of the Word. If you like, sing first, then pray, and then read the Word, or any order you like. The order doesn't matter—the doing of it does. Whatever works best for you.

You're probably very busy, but if you don't have a daily morning quality prayer life, coupled with the reading of the Word, you're not going to be able to withstand the rigors and ordeal of the ordination process, let alone a lifetime of ministry in The Hebraic Perspective. For those of you not seeking ordination, this lifestyle will make you strong in the Lord and an asset to all those around you.

If you're not used to praying for an extended length of time, begin with 20 minutes a day for a week and increase your time by 10 minutes each week until you get to 60 minutes. One hour of prayer, in the morning, is the foundation. This is the standard. Adding another 10, 20, 30 or 60 minutes or more reorients you in Him in an even greater way. Morning time of praise, prayer and the Word is essential for how you'll feel and react to circumstances and people the rest of the day. Morning praise, Word and prayer is your time to be with Yeshua and be reoriented by the Holy Spirit.

Also, you should be praying in tongues one-third of your prayer time, usually the beginning third.⁹ Divide the 60 minutes (or whatever time you're praying) into three equal parts, which will give you time for:

1. Praying in tongues, and
2. Praying in your understanding (your own language), and
3. Waiting upon the Lord.

The 60 minutes should be quality prayer time, which means that you're not doing anything except seeking His Face and also praying for others to be drawn to Him, etc. You're not listening to music, nor making toast and eggs, nor driving down the road, etc. It's quality prayer time. It's time specifically set apart in the morning upon arising to lift up prayer concerns and then to focus upon Him. True ministry comes out of our waiting upon the Lord, meditating on His Word, praising and worshiping Him, reading the Scriptures and quality prayer time spent with Him. Seek first Yeshua and His Kingdom and all these other things will be added unto you.

This paradigm, of dividing your prayer time into three equal parts, isn't so rigid that you can't pray with your understanding during the time of tongues, or waiting upon the Lord, etc. Also, if the Holy Spirit directs you to listen to praise and worship music one day, for some or all of the prayer time, do so, but this should be an exception, not the general rule.

If you're not used to praying in tongues for a third of your prayer time, I would suggest that when you begin to pray in tongues that you think of Yeshua being there in the room with you, and you worshiping Him in tongues and telling Him that you love Him. Also, ask Papa God to pour out the Holy Spirit upon you, like He did in Acts 2 to the Apostles, in the precious name of Yeshua, that you would have their ability to heal others in the name of Yeshua and to preach and teach the Kingdom.

For the last third of your prayer time wait upon the Lord Yeshua: listen for His Voice and 'look for Him;' seek to enter into His Presence to get to know Him (better) by His Spirit. Wait upon Him for an impression or a word, and just be with Him. Whether you literally sense anything or not you'll find that you'll come out of that time reoriented and 'ready for the day.'

One hour in the morning every day is the minimum goal for the rest of your life. Of course, you can pray in the afternoons and evenings, too, which is like icing on a cake, but only time in the morning counts toward the hour. Morning prayer is essential because the Lord reorients us for the day through it. Yes, you may have to get up earlier than usual, but it's more than worth it. Like physical exercise, the more one does it the more one is accustomed to it, and the more it becomes a (godly) habit, and the easier it is, as time truly seems to fly by in His Presence.

Of course, there may be some mornings when you might not be able to pray for an hour, due to having gone to bed too late the night before, but try and get some time of praise and worship, reading of the ⁹ To understand why I make praying in tongues a major part of your prayer life please read Dave Roberson's book, The Walk of the Spirit—The Walk of Power. It can be downloaded for free. It's one of the required books to be read for both the ordination process and the non-ordination process, and when you read it send me an email, sharing some of your insights and/or concerns.

Word, and 15 minutes or more of prayer for that morning, and return to the hour of prayer the next morning. Reading the word, praising Him and studying the Word are eternal investments and help us to live in the day by His Spirit, with His Love, Joy, Long-Suffering and Wisdom, and to be able to minister to others in His name. We can only give to others what God has given to us.

The spiritual benefits of the three of them are great because they bring us deeper into His Kingdom, give us a greater awareness of the Lord in our lives, and a greater trust and dependency upon Him, which is real maturity and greater shalom (peace) ‘in Yeshua.’ Time spent in the three allows the Holy Spirit to mold and shape our soul so that we truly reflect the heart and character of Messiah Yeshua in our lives, to strangers as well as family, and everyone else ‘in-between.’

“But the Fruit of the Spirit is (God’s) love, (God’s) joy, (God’s) peace, (God’s) long suffering, (God’s) kindness, (God’s) goodness, (God’s) faithfulness, (God’s) gentleness, (God’s) self-control. Against such there is no law.” (Galatians 5:22-23)

FINAL THOUGHTS

All the articles, etc., on The Seed of Abraham website are to be read as part of the ordination and the non-ordination requirements. If you download the PDFs you read, you’ll be able to build your own library of articles and books, and also be able to send them to others whenever the need arises (or their links from The Checklist for TSOA, and be able to print them out with their formatting and footnotes, for yourself and as possible handouts to others through either email or physically handing them out to people.

After you’ve read the articles, etc., in THP and given me feedback on them, and have begun the Scripture readings, you’ll want to continue with a systematic approach to the rest of the materials by starting with the articles listed in the Articles menu:

1. Biblical
2. Christian
3. Jewish
4. Mosaic Sacrifice
5. Miscellaneous
 - a. All the Books to Read in the Articles section under Miscellaneous¹⁰ are the books that are required reading for the ordination and non-ordination process. Please read them in the order listed, but if a book or any article ‘calls out to you,’ feel free to read it before another.
 - b. You can read the books while you are reading the articles on the website, interspersing them, or you can do the website first and then the books and DVDs.
6. The Jewish Newsletters (in their order).
7. Missions
8. The Seed of Abraham (articles you haven’t already read)
9. Comments 2002 to the present.

¹⁰ The Books to Read are also noted on the Checklist.

THE GOAL OF ORDINATION

The goal of ordination is to read the weekly Scripture readings as well as all the articles, CDs, DVDs and books on the website, and the YouTube messages, interacting with me on all of them, as well as to develop a solid time of daily prayer and reading of the Word. By the time you're ordained you will be fully knowledgeable in The Hebraic Perspective and able to teach it to others, as well as to minister to Jew or Gentile, in the name of Yeshua. This also holds true for the non-ordainee.

For the ordainees, if I sense from the Lord that you're ready for ordination before you finish all the website material then you'll be ordained at that time. Of course, you'll need to continue reading until all the material is read, but ordination is not based on what you've read, but who and 'where' you are in Messiah Yeshua. On the other hand, if after having read all the material on the website, I sense that you're not ready to be ordained, then we'll wait upon the Lord for His timing. This applies to the non-ordainee also, in terms of receiving the Certificate of Achievement.

If after ordination, say, one, ten or thirty years down the road you sense that the Lord is leading you in another direction and you want to sever your official ties with The Seed of Abraham, send me your ordination certificate and card. After that you're free to pursue whatever path you sense the Lord is leading you in. Conversely, if you teach things, in my judgment, that are contrary to the Word of God (e.g. Kabbalah; Sunday observance over Sabbath holiness; the wearing of the kippa; or Yeshua not being deity, etc.) and you do not have a change of mind after a given time and interaction with me, you'll be notified that you are no longer officially part of The Seed of Abraham. I will ask for your ordination certificate and card back and you'll not be able to use the name, The Seed of Abraham, or my name, or my articles, etc., for anything (e.g. the name of your congregation; teachings of mine, etc.).

The Hebraic Perspective, which identifies and distinguishes us from all Catholic and Protestant churches, and others of seemingly similar views, but who are very different from us,¹¹ is a 'wide open field' with room for growing theologically—for discussion, oneness and disagreement. We can disagree on issues not central to our faith in Messiah Yeshua (e.g. the day of the Resurrection, the date of the Exodus, and the color of the carpet in your congregational meeting place) and still fellowship, but there are red lines which, if one goes past, disqualifies him for association with The Seed of Abraham (e.g. the deity and humanity of Messiah Yeshua). Everyone sins, and no one has 'all the right teachings,' but hopefully, after correction he will change his thinking, but heresy, rebellion and an unteachable spirit cannot be tolerated.

If you have any questions let me know.¹²

We're not to bend God's Word to our way of thinking, but to bend our way of thinking to God's Word.

¹¹ For instance, Messianic Judaism, with its lack of Torah integrity, and many Hebrew Roots and 'One Law' people with their insistence on Gentile circumcision, which is a major heresy, are not people who would agree with our perspective on Scripture, even though they may seem closer to us than the Church.
