

THE WAY OF A JEW

by Avram Yehoshua

The SeedofAbraham.net

I was born in Brooklyn, NY on May 24th 1951 and circumcised into the Covenant of Father Abraham eight days later. For the first 24 years of my life, even though I had an Orthodox bar mitzva, I wandered spiritually because my spiritual compass was faulty. Was the God of Israel real? I didn't know, but in 1971, at 20 years old, I began searching for Him. For four years I walked down 'Spiritual Lane,' with Transcendental Meditation and Zen Buddhism, which I thought were great, but I was deceived and didn't realize it, not knowing the Real Thing. In Oct. 1975 though, at 24 years old, I met Him. Just like Father Abraham I met our God and He changed my life. There is no greater event in a person's life than meeting the one true God—the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Once that happens all doubts and questions about His existence vanish, and 'other gods,' like TM and Zen, are seen for the counterfeits they are.

When I came to know God through the Messiah of Israel a heavenly shalom (peace) came upon my soul and I knew that our God was real and that Yeshua (Jesus) was our Messiah. I knew it because I had just experienced Him. I had started reading a book about Yeshua, not realizing when I picked it up that it was about Jesus, and I was halfway through it when I saw that Yeshua was everything I had always wanted, but couldn't put my Jewish finger on. I asked Yeshua to forgive me for all my sins and to cleanse me of its guilt, and to come into my life—and He did! It was truly Wonder-Full. I felt so alive and clean.

Our God has created inside us Jews a desire to know Him and to walk with Him, as Father Abraham did. Most of the time our hearts get covered with 'making a living' and trying 'to be somebody.' Many times that divine place never sees the light of day, and some of us who desire a relationship with God get snafued by witchcraft, or 'New Age,' or Buddhism, etc., because we look at Orthodox Judaism and see a lot of rigid rules and unhappy people. What other alternative is there? Most of us don't want to give Jesus 'a chance' because we Jews know that 'Jews don't believe in Jesus.'

The first reason we don't believe in Jesus is because 'in the Name of Jesus' more of us Jews have been persecuted and murdered than in all other names combined. The second reason is that it seems that Christians believe in three gods, instead of one, and the third point is that Christians don't keep Mosaic Law. These are good reasons for not believing in Jesus, but as in many things, there's more to Yeshua than meets the eye.

Christians murdering us isn't anymore Yeshua's fault than if a Jew robs a bank and Moses gets blamed. Every Christian who has murdered a Jew will stand before Yeshua the Jew on Judgment Day and give an account for murdering Yeshua's brothers and sisters. Yeshua says, in the last book of the New Covenant, that He is the root and offspring of King David (Revelation 22:16; cf. Isaiah 11:1-2).

God is righteous—no one gets away with murder, but how can God have a Son? The short answer is found in Psalm 2:2, 6-7; Prov. 30:4 and Micah 5:1. A fuller Jewish understanding is found in these articles of mine:

The third point, that Christians do not walk in Mosaic Law, which, by the way, Yeshua and all His followers did, is because the Roman Catholic Church, about 120 AD, threw out Mosaic Law; created ‘Christian’ anti-Semitism and days and ways that were not of the God of Israel (e.g. Sunday, Easter and Christmas, as well as the eating of foods that God calls unclean and an abomination; Lev. 11:1f.).

Most Christians today don’t realize that the anti-Mosaic Law sentiments and understanding they have is not found in the New Testament, but is Roman Catholic heretical teaching. I teach Christians that they should keep all the laws and statutes of Moses that apply to them (like Sabbath, Feasts of Israel and the Mosaic dietary laws). I’ve written a number of articles and a book that explains to them that Jesus wants them to walk as He walked (1st John 2:6), in all the rules of Moses that apply to them. Here are a number of articles that present that shocking truth to them:

Yeshua is God’s answer to the deepest desire of our heart—the knowledge of, and relationship with, the God of Israel. It’s only through Yeshua that you can have a living relationship with Papa God. Yeshua said, ‘I am the Way, the Truth and the Life. No one comes to the Father except through Me’ (John 14:6).

Yeshua loves you and wants to reveal Himself to you, and then you’ll know that He is real and our Messiah. Read my articles and contact me via email through my website at The SeedofAbraham.net if you have any questions or concerns.

Once you come to see that Yeshua is your Messiah, ask Him to forgive all your sins and come into your life. That’s why He died for you. He gave up His own life so you could have eternal life. Ask Him to fill you with the Holy Spirit and then you will know the joy of the Jewish Messiah.¹ Isaiah said of our Messiah that,

“He was wounded for our transgressions; He was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement for our peace was upon Him, and by His stripes we are healed.” (Isaiah 53:5)
