

Hello Pastor,

May the glorious peace of the Lord Jesus be with you today.

My name is Avram Yehoshua and I was born in Brooklyn, New York in May 1951. I didn't grow up in the Church and so when I gave my life to Jesus in 1975 and was Born Again, I prayed for hours on end and devoured the Scriptures. In 1979 the Lord led me to attend Oral Roberts University (ORU) in Tulsa, OK where I spent four years in their graduate theology program (MDiv). I learned much there, but after that it was the Lord's turn to challenge, teach and lead me deeper into His Kingdom and His Way of walking out my faith in Him. That's why I'm contacting you.

After ORU I pastored a church in Tulsa, OK for 14 years, and then the Lord led my wife and me to live in Israel for 16 years, pastoring and witnessing to my Jewish people about Messiah Yeshua (the Hebrew name for Jesus). I've taught more than 500 times in various churches from "A to Z"—from the Assemblies of God to the United Methodists and just about every church 'in between,' having ministered in more than 35 states in the USA and Israel. I also teach, train and ordain men to begin branch congregations of The Seed of Abraham in their own cities. Today I find myself in Flagstaff, Arizona proclaiming the Life and Truth of Jesus Christ to Jew and Gentile, and planting a congregation here.

I want to share with you what the Holy Spirit is saying to the Body of Christ today. It's the Lord's Way of understanding and interpreting some New Testament Scripture that deals with lifestyle. Hopefully, it'll make sense to you and you'll see that God wants you to reorder your life "in Christ" accordingly.

A Divine Paradigm Shift

It was the summer of 1983 and the Lord Jesus began challenging me about the most forbidden fruit in the Christian Garden—Mosaic Law. A Christian woman in the congregation asked me why Christians didn't keep Mosaic Law. I told her Mosaic Law was done away with by Jesus who "nailed it to the cross" (Col. 2:14) and so "the Law isn't for us. We are under Grace." A few days later she asked me,

"If Mosaic Law isn't for Christians, why does the Apostle Paul exhort the Corinthians to keep the Feast of Passover—Unleavened Bread?"

She showed me 1st Cor. 5:6-8 and there it was—the Apostle to the Gentiles was telling them to 'keep the feast,' which obviously was that of Passover—Unleavened Bread because Paul tells them to become an 'unleavened' loaf of bread "since you truly are unleavened" (v. 7 NKJV). This would have made absolutely no sense to them if they weren't keeping this Feast of Israel (see Lev. 23:4) because if Mosaic Law, where the Feast is commanded, had been done away with, they wouldn't have known what Paul was talking about.

The Church teaches that the Law was "done away with" at the Cross, but First Corinthians was written more than 20 years after the Resurrection. This passage startled me, but this time I told her, "You've got a point there." With that question and the New Testament Scripture, Jesus had made a crack in my theological wall against Mosaic Law. I was curious to search this out, and in time Jesus would overturn my theological prejudice against Mosaic Law as the Christian's lifestyle, and lead me to the Four Pillars of Mosaic Law for every Christian:

1. The Feasts of Israel (Mt. 26:1ff.; Acts 20:6; 27:9; 1st Cor. 5:6-8),
2. The Mosaic Dietary Laws (Mt. 15:20; Acts 10:14, 28, 34-35; 11:18; 21:20-24; 25:8),
3. The Seventh Day Sabbath (Mk. 2:27-28; Acts 13:42, 44; 15:21; Heb. 4:9), and
4. Tithing (Mt. 23:23; Lk. 11:42).

The Holy Spirit is revealing that these Four Pillars of Mosaic Law are for every Christian today because Jesus did not cancel Mosaic Law “at the Cross,” and obviously, “being under Grace” does not mean that Christians have a divine license to sin. The theological question that begs to be asked is, “What is God’s New Testament definition of sin after the Cross?” According to Paul, we only know the full extent of what sin is in God’s eyes by Mosaic Law.

First, though, Paul point-blank asks and states in Romans, his greatest theological letter, that Christians aren’t supposed to keep on sinning because they are “under Grace:”

“What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin that grace may abound? Certainly not! How shall we who died to sin live any longer in it?” (Rom. 6:1-2)

Romans 3:20

The Apostle Paul writes that the only way Christians can fully know how God defines sin is through Mosaic Law:

“Therefore by the deeds of the law no flesh will be justified in His sight, for by the law is the knowledge of sin.” (Romans 3:20 NKJV)

That’s not a bad translation, but a far more accurate and explosive translation of the second phrase reads, “...for by the Law is the full knowledge of sin.” The Greek word for knowledge is gnosis, but Paul adds a prefix to it, “epi,” which makes it epignosis or “full knowledge.” Therefore, the last phrase in v. 20 should read, “for by the Law is the full knowledge of sin.” In other words, without Mosaic Law, Christians don’t have God’s understanding of sin, and consequently, they sin in ignorance against Jesus and don’t even realize it. Conversely, they also don’t see what God’s righteous lifestyle is for them, which is found in Mosaic Law (i.e. the Four Pillars of Moses, etc.; cf. 2nd Tim. 3:10-17, where Paul speaks of the Old Testament, which includes Mosaic Law, saying that, “All Scripture” is good for doctrine and for making Christians “thoroughly equipped for every good work”)...

“and that from childhood you have known the Holy Scriptures (i.e. Mosaic Law, etc.), which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.” (2nd Tim. 3:15 NKJV)

No one had the New Testament in Paul’s day. If a church had one or two of his letters it was a lot. All churches read and taught from the Old Testament, for it spoke of Christ (cf. Luke 24:44), and of who Jesus was and Jesus did, and walking out their faith in Him through Mosaic Law (Acts 15:21).¹

That the term “law” in Romans 3:20 is Mosaic Law that the Apostle is speaking of is beyond question because it was Mosaic Law (and not just the Ten Commandments) that judged Jesus sinless.² In other words, if Jesus had not kept the Passover every year He would have sinned (cf. Num. 9:13). Passover is not part of the Ten Commandments and would certainly have made Him a sinner if He hadn’t kept it. How can Christians, who desire to follow Jesus, disregard Passover and not be sinning? Some Christians say because Christ is their Passover Lamb, they don't actually have to literally keep Passover. Would they also say they don't have to eat and drink because Christ is their Bread of Life and Living Water? Of course not. The problem with their logic is glaringly apparent. It's because Jesus is our Passover Lamb that Passover's meaning of freedom from Egyptian slavery is exponentially amplified "in Christ," the (Passover) Lamb of God. By celebrating Passover Christians are not only obeying God the Father's commandment to Israel and not sinning, but also entering into His Way of honoring Him and His Son.

¹ See The Lifting of the Veil: Acts 15:20-21 by Avram Yehoshua. Acts 15:20-21 establishes Mosaic Law as God’s lifestyle for every Christian by revealing that the four rules of James (v. 20) weren’t given for table fellowship, as the Church wrongly teaches. The rules are a conceptual unit on pagan sacrificial-sexual idolatry. The Gentile Christians had to sever themselves from it in order for their faith in Jesus to be seen as genuine. These weren’t the only rules for the Gentiles, but the most important, as worship of other gods along with Jesus would negate their salvation. James realized that the new Gentile Christians had been learning Torah (Mosaic Law) in the synagogues (cf. James 2:2, where the Greek word for synagogue is used, but most English Bibles have ‘assembly’), and this is why he acknowledges it (Acts 15:21)—the Gentiles were going, and would continue to go, to learn about the God of Israel in the synagogues and house churches, and His way of living out their faith in the Messiah of Israel.

² 92% of the time or 182x out of 198x when the word ‘law’ is used in the New Testament it means Mosaic Law; see Mosaic Law and the Ten.

Others would say they don't have to keep Passover because they're not Jewish, but belief in the Jewish Messiah makes a Christian part of Israel (Jn. 10:16; Rom. 11:11f.; Eph. 2:11f.). Gentile Christians (and Jewish Christians), should keep all the rules of Moses that apply to them, if they're actually going to follow Jesus.

If Jesus had eaten just one slice of bacon He would have been a sinner, breaking the Mosaic Dietary Law (see Lev. 11:7; cf. Mt. 7:6; 8:31-32).³ Obviously, correctly discerning or interpreting God's Word has its theological and practical implications. If it was sin for Christ, how can it not be sin for His Body? Isn't Jesus our Head? Most teach He did away with the so-called ceremonial Law. Look as you may in all the Old and New Testaments, but you'll never find that artificial category. Mosaic Law is an organic whole, like the roots, stem and petals of a rose—different parts, but all one flower. Take one part away and the rose withers. No wonder Christians are dying at the same rate of cancer and heart disease, etc., as the secular population. They are transgressing God's dietary laws and don't even realize it. The first thing that doctors take heart attack and/or high blood patients off of is pig, which God forbids His people Israel (Lev. 11:7). Yes, properly discerning God's Word has its practical implications.

Romans 3:20 is just one Scripture from the New Testament, after the Resurrection, and I specifically use the phrase, after the Resurrection, because the Church teaches that the Law was made null and void for Christians at the Cross. This biblical understanding from just Romans 3:20 contradicts and seriously challenges the Church's traditional teaching against Mosaic Law, which teaching came from the Roman Catholic Church, not God or the New Testament. The Father wants all Christians to walk out their faith in Jesus just the Way Jesus did. Doesn't that make sense? Isn't Jesus Christ our Example to emulate, even and especially in matters of lifestyle? Christians are dying at the same rate of cancer and heart disease, etc., as the secular population because they are transgressing God's dietary laws by eating pig, lobster, catfish and shrimp, etc., and don't even realize it. How subtle is the Serpent!

The Her of Revelation

The Apostle John, writing more than 60 years after the Resurrection states, "He who says he abides in Him ought himself also to walk just as He walked" (1st John 2:6). It doesn't say "just as He talked" or "just as He loved," but "just as He walked." John is specifically speaking about the Lord's lifestyle—not that it doesn't include talking or loving like Him, but it must also include His Mosaic Law lifestyle. To walk like Him can mean nothing else.

John also heard something that he writes of in Revelation that speaks of Roman Catholicism and its stranglehold upon the neck of every Christian. He heard God say, 'Come out of Her, My people! Lest you share in Her sins and receive of Her plagues!' (Rev. 18:4)

"My people" are obviously Christians that are in a "Her" that God wants them to come out of. All the Reformers (e.g. Luther, Calvin and Zwingli) saw the Her as the Roman Catholic Church. The problem with the Reformers is that they didn't realize that more than a thousand years earlier a Pope had thrown out Mosaic Law (in 120 AD) and replaced it with Sunday, Easter, Xmas, ham, and a contempt for Mosaic Law, "the Law of the Jews." Because Mosaic Law has been demonized by all Protestant Church leaders for hundreds of years, it has become a strong tradition within Protestantism that also nullifies God's Word.

Rome's anti-New Testament Days and Ways, as well as Her negation of God's holy Days and Ways (Sabbath, Feasts of Israel, the Mosaic Dietary laws and Tithing, etc.) spin around a few phrases in the New Testament like, we're "not under the Law" anymore, and also, their heretical interpretation of Peter's Vision (Acts 10), etc. The Reformers never questioned Rome's Days and Ways, and so that's how Protestantism got them, and doesn't even realize where they got them from, but today God's Voice is warning Christians to come out of Rome's Days and Ways, even though Protestants are not Catholics. Of course, God also wants Catholics to leave the Whore of New Testament Babylon, as the New Testament and the Reformers called Her, and for most Catholics, to be Born Again the biblical Way, not Rome's heretical Way by belonging to Her and resting their hope of Heaven in being sprinkled and in "Mary," the Queen of Heaven, who will rescue them from the mythical pagan place of Purgatory. Purgatory is not in the Bible, but it's found in paganism. Neither is the Jewish maiden who carried the Messiah of Israel in her womb ever called the Queen of Heaven in the New Testament. That's a designation for Ishtar, the Assyrian goddess and other goddesses as well,⁴ but that's what Rome calls their Mary.

Paul Kept Mosaic Law after the Resurrection

The Holy Spirit is causing Christians to look at Rome's Days and Ways and categorically reject them and begin to walk in God's Days and Ways. We see the Truth in Jesus and all His Apostles, including Paul, walking in Mosaic Law (cf. Acts 18:18; 21:20-24, where Paul takes the Law's "most Law Vow," the Nazarite Vow). It doesn't get any "more Law" than the Nazarite Vow with its animal sacrifices (Num. 6:14). If Mosaic Law had been done away with at the Cross, Paul would have been the first to tell James about it in Acts 21, especially since the Church considers Paul to be its "No Law!" champion, but Paul took the Nazarite Vow, with its shaving of the head (Num. 6:18) to show everyone, especially us today, that he still kept Mosaic Law 25 years after the Resurrection—not for salvation or justification, but as his God ordained lifestyle (Acts 21 took place around 55-58 AD). James said to Paul that there were four men who had taken a Vow and that Paul was to,

"Take them and be purified with them, and pay their expenses so that they may shave their heads, and that all may know that those things of which they were informed concerning you are nothing, but that you yourself also walk orderly and keep the law." (Acts 21:24 NKJV; see Acts 18:18, which was Paul's first recorded Nazarite Vow.)

Luke wrote the Book of Acts more than 30 years after the Resurrection (64 AD), and Luke was a Gentile, so he had no "Jewish bias" toward or for Mosaic Law, but Acts is filled with many places that confirm Mosaic Law as the Christian lifestyle. For example, in the Book of Acts Luke speaks of the Feasts of Israel seven times, which averages out to one Feast of Israel every four chapters. Luke doesn't just mention them 'in passing,' but uses them as time markers to tell Gentile Theophilus when an event happened. This would have been meaningless to Theo if he didn't know when the Feasts were, which strongly implies that he, as well as all Christians in his day, kept the Feasts of Israel.⁵

⁴ For example, Diana is also called The Queen of Heaven; Acts 19:24-35; see Jer. 44:17-19, 25; and The Two Babylons—The Full Hislop, pp. 56, 61-63, etc.).

Three NT Verses That Affirm Mosaic Law

Christians are part of Israel (John 10:16; Rom. 11:11f.; Gal. 6:16; Eph. 2:11f.), and as such they need to learn about their Family Ways and values that determine their walk of faith. There are other rules of Moses that Christians should keep, too, but they're not Pillars as the four above are. Jesus wants us to walk out our faith in Him through all the rules of Moses that apply to us, just as He and all His Apostles did. One way of knowing this is seen in these three Scripture verses:

1. The Apostle Paul wrote that Jesus is our Head and we're His Body (Col. 1:18).
2. The author of the Letter to the Hebrews said that Jesus is the same yesterday, today and forever (Heb. 13:8).
3. The Apostle John says we're to walk just like Jesus walked (1st John 2:6).

If Jesus is our Head and we're His Body, and He is the same today as He was 2,000 years ago in Israel, then He's still a Mosaic Law keeping Savior, and if we're to walk just like He walked when He was in Israel, we should be emulating His Mosaic Law lifestyle. He always kept the Sabbath day holy and He was never legalistic about it.

Jesus also kept the Feasts of Israel and never ate pork chops or oysters. He would have been a sinner if He hadn't kept those divine Days and Ways, which the Father and He, along with the Holy Spirit, gave to Israel for Israel's lifestyle after they were saved from Egypt. Israel was saved in Egypt by the blood of the lamb, and then led out to Mt. Sinai to learn God's Days and Ways. We are saved by the Blood of the Lamb, and God's Days and Ways are His lifestyle for us.

Digressing for a moment, the Catholic phrase, "the Last Supper," is not found in the New Testament. It's an intentionally dishonest Catholic phrase that circumvents the fact that it was the Jewish Passover that was Christ's last meal (cf. Mt. 26:17-19; Lk. 22:7-15). Rome never calls it the Passover or His last Passover because of their historical anti-Semitic theology and practice against the Jews. Not that the Protestants are innocent, but in the Name of Jesus more Jews have been persecuted and murdered than in all other names combined. Official Church doctrine: Christian anti-Semitism—what an oxymoron.

Jesus is our Example in all religious and spiritual things. He redeemed us by His divine sinless blood. He didn't do away with God's holy and spiritual divine Standard of Mosaic Law (Rom. 7:12, 14). He gave us the Holy Spirit so we could follow Him from the inside-out. If Jesus wouldn't walk in Rome's Days and Ways, why should we? After all, illicit SEX is not of God, but of our Enemy.

Illicit SEX

Illicit SEX is an acronym for Sunday, Easter and Xmas, which also includes the eating of biblically unclean animals such as shrimp, pig and lobster, etc., and the Church's teaching against Mosaic Law, which came into Christianity through Pope Sixtus in 120 AD. The Pope was the one who changed Sabbath to Sunday, Passover to Easter and threw out Mosaic Law (cf. Dan. 7:25) and brought in Christian anti-Semitism. It wasn't God nor the Apostles nor is it written in the New Testament that Mosaic Law is nullified for Christians, despite a few NT texts that the Church uses to justify its heretical position. (It would be another Pope, around 350 AD, who brought in Xmas.)

Some might say, "Does it really matter which days and ways a Christian keeps?" If God wants us to keep Mosaic Law as our lifestyle, it matters to God, and it should matter to us. Is there another Way? Is it the Pope's Days and Ways? The Pope's Day and Ways are antithetical to Jesus Christ who is the same today as He was 2,000 years ago in Israel. Jesus kept the Sabbath day holy and Passover as well (Gen. 2:1-3; Lev. 23:3; Mark 2:27-28; Luke 4:16), and we should, too.

Nowhere in the New Testament does anyone write that Sunday replaced the Sabbath, something we'd expect to see if God had actually done it. After all, God gave the Sabbath and Passover to Israel more than 1400 years before Jesus was born in Bethlehem. If our Father was going to change Sabbath to Sunday, and Passover to Easter, there would be a number of Scripture references or witnesses to the changes and why they were changed, but nothing like that exists in the New Testament because the Pope changed it. Just ask any Catholic priest (or Google it). Rome is actually proud of being able to disregard the Word of God for their traditions.

Most Christians think that they keep Sunday because "Jesus rose from the dead on Sunday." Well, Jesus did rise from the dead on Sunday, but that Sunday was the Feast of First Fruits within Passover Week, which comes once a year (cf. Lev. 23:5f., with 1st Cor. 15:20, 23). It's interesting that God didn't make that annual Sunday an annual Sabbath, like the Sunday of Pentecost (which is called the Feast of Weeks in the Old Testament; Ex. 34:22; Dt. 16:16, etc.), and is 50 days after the Sunday of First Fruits (Lev. 23:10-16). Paul speaks of Christ being the First Fruits to rise from the dead, but says nothing about Sunday replacing the Sabbath because of it:

"But now Christ is risen from the dead, and has become the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. But each one in his own order...Christ the firstfruits, afterward those who are Christ's at His coming." (1st Corinthians 15:20, 23 NKJV)

Christ is the Passover Lamb of God, who dies on the first day of Passover, and is raised on the Sunday of First Fruits (aka first sheaf). This is all within the biblical framework of the Feasts of Israel, which did not change at the Cross.

Also, there is no such animal as a Christian Sabbath (i.e. Sunday). It's not found in Scripture. The term Sabbath means, to cease or to end, and so one cannot have a Sabbath on the first day of the week (i.e. Sunday), because Sunday begins the week—it doesn't end the week, like God's 7th day Sabbath.

Sola Scriptura?

Sola Scriptura is a Latin phrase the Reformers used which means that only the Bible is authoritative for what we are to believe and therefore, what we are to practice (our Christian lifestyle). Protestants, whose guiding star in Christian lifestyle is the Bible, are mocked by Catholics because they know that they were the ones who gave Protestants Sunday, Easter and Xmas and so Protestants aren't following Scripture, but Catholic tradition.⁶

Christians who have never set foot inside a Catholic church, but who walk in illicit SEX, are honorary Catholics, following, emulating and honoring the Pope instead of Jesus Christ, and don't even realize it. How subtle the Serpent is! Illicit SEX is the biggest Deception since Eve took a bite of that forbidden fruit!

Of course, this heretical lifestyle applies to Catholics, too, who don't realize that the Catholic Church is not a Christian organization, and being part of it will not get them into Heaven. The Catholic Church is a religious cult far worse than the Mormons or the Jehovah's Witnesses because Rome has deceived even most Protestants today. It wasn't like that in the days of the Reformers. They all knew and taught their Flocks that Rome was not a Christian church. Catholics need to be biblically Born Again (John 3:3, 5), renounce Catholicism, and leave the Catholic Church because illicit SEX is just the tip of Catholicism's wicked and heretical iceberg.⁷

⁶ See Sunday—The Catholic Sabbath, Sabbath Denigration and Grace, Holiness and the Pharisaic Church.

⁷ See Alexander Hislop's, The Two Babylons—The Full Hislop and also Dave Hunt's, A Woman Rides the Beast, both of which explain from different perspectives that Catholicism is not a Christian church, but a very wicked entity, and is anti-Jesus.

Who is this Jesus You Teach?

I teach the Lord's biblical lifestyle, which for most Christians involves a Divine Paradigm Shift in their thinking and lifestyle. It's important to walk out our faith in Jesus His Way, not the Pope's Way nor the Way of anyone else who teaches against God's New Testament's lifestyle because we shouldn't be sinning against the Lord Jesus, even in ignorance (see Acts 1:1-3; 13:42, 44; Rom. 3:20, 31; 7:12, 14, 22, 25; 1st Cor. 7:19; Rev. 14:12).

If the Holy Spirit has been leading you to question any part of illicit SEX, I will be able to help you to see more of how it's directly contrary to God's New Testament Word, and also, how Mosaic Law is what our Lord wants us to walk in. I've been walking in the Lord's lifestyle since 1983 and I have written many articles and two books that deal with this subject, which all can be found on my website, under Articles/The Hebraic Perspective.⁸

If not, if illicit SEX and a Mosaic Law lifestyle are totally new to you and you think my understanding is "completely off the wall," I ask you to pray about it. This is what the Holy Spirit is crying out to the Church today, and God's discernment is required on your part to begin to sort through the morass of illicit SEX and to realize that illicit SEX is truly of Satan and designed to pervert both your walk with Christ and what you teach others, by word and example. Jesus is not alright with Sunday, Easter, Xmas, the eating of bacon and the non-observance of His 7th Day Sabbath, the Feasts of Israel and the Mosaic Dietary laws, etc. Has Jesus changed His Days and Ways? Prove it to yourself, and if you have any questions or think that I'm wrong, please choose one or more of my passages of Scripture in this letter and tell me where my reasoning is not accurate or biblical. "And Jesus said to them,

"The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath. Therefore the Son of Man is also Lord of the Sabbath." (Mark 2:27-28 NKJV)

This has never changed. Jesus is still Lord of the Sabbath. The ultimate questions that this message to you raise are: Is Jesus,

1. A pig eater or would He still reject bacon if you offered it to Him today?
2. Is He still a Sabbath keeper or does He sanction Sunday over the Sabbath?
3. Does He allow you to teach it's alright to eat animals that would have made Him a sinner?
4. Does He allow you to teach it's alright to to keep Easter (or the more fashionable, Resurrection Sunday), instead of Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread?
5. Who are you following in these days and ways? The Pope or Christ?

The Church, taking phrases and words in the New Testament that they filter through their anti-Mosaic Law theology, doesn't realize that the phrase or word does not support their anti-Mosaic Law interpretation. One such phrase is, "we're no longer under the Law," which I'll explain in a moment, and another word which the Church misunderstands: "fulfill."

Fulfill, Jesus and Mosaic Law

Christians can proclaim Catholicism's "illicit SEX and anti-Mosaic Law Jesus" to any people group in the world except to the Jews because they know that God Himself gave them Mosaic Law from Mt. Sinai, and as God says to them many times, it's to be kept throughout their generations (Ex. 12:14, 17; Lev.

⁸ See The Lifting of the Veil—Acts 15:20-21 and my articles under Articles/The Hebraic Perspective at The Seed of Abraham.

23:14, 21, 31, etc.), not just until the Messiah comes (Luke 16:16 notwithstanding). Also, Jesus said that He did not come to do away with Mosaic Law. Does it get any plainer than that? Jesus said,

“Do not think that I came to destroy the Law or the Prophets. I did not come to destroy but to fulfill.” (Matthew 5:17 NKJV)

The Church teaches that the Law was “fulfilled” at the Cross and so Christians don’t have to be concerned about it, but listen to what Jesus said to His Apostles about “fulfill,” after the Cross and His Resurrection:

“Then He said to them, ‘These are the words which I spoke to you while I was still with you, that all things must be fulfilled which were written in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms concerning Me.’ And He opened their understanding, that they might comprehend the Scriptures. Then He said to them, ‘Thus it is written, and thus it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead the third day.’”(Luke 24:44-46 NKJV; cf. v. 37)

According to the Lord of Glory, “fulfill” has absolutely nothing to do with canceling Mosaic Law for Christians, but of the Law speaking of a coming Redeemer who would suffer and die:

“And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her Seed. He shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise His heel.” (Genesis 3:15)

Genesis 3:15 is one such prophecy that Jesus fulfilled. Jesus did not do away with Mosaic Law. It is still God’s holy Standard for one’s lifestyle. Jesus loved and kept Mosaic Law all His life (cf. Ps. 40:7-8), and so did His Apostles because it’s a written reflection of who Jesus is and what He would do. Where does He state in the New Testament that the Law will be done away with or of no consequence to His followers? I would think that something this monumental would have been on the lips of Jesus a number of times—to prepare His Apostles to teach others, but not only is Jesus silent about it’s demise, He literally tells us it will stay as long as these Heavens and this Earth are here (Mt. 5:18; Lk. 16:17).

One of God’s reasons for the New Covenant was expressly so that Mosaic Law could be placed within the hearts of Christians. The only passage in the entire Old Testament where the term, New Covenant, is written is in the Prophet Jeremiah:

“‘Behold! the days are coming!’ says Yahveh, “when I will make a New Covenant with the House of Israel and with the House of Judah—not according to the Covenant that I made with their Fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt, My Covenant which they broke, though I was a husband to them,” says Yahveh. “This is the Covenant that I will make with the House of Israel after those days,” says Yahveh: I will put My Law (Hebrew: Torah/Mosaic Law) in their minds and write it on their hearts. I will be their God and they shall be My people. No more shall every man teach his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, “Know Yahveh!,” for they all shall know Me, from the least of them to the greatest of them,” says Yahveh. “For I will forgive their iniquity and their sin I will remember no more.”” (Jeremiah 31:31-34)

The Hebrew word for ‘law’ in Jer. 31:33 is Torah, which is Mosaic Law. The Author of Hebrews confirms this understanding of God wanting to place Mosaic Law on our hearts and minds of every Christian by twice quoting Jer. 31:33...

“For this is the Covenant that I will make with the House of Israel after those days,” says the Lord: “I will put My laws in their mind and write them on their hearts, and I will be their God, and they shall be My people.” (Hebrews 8:10, see also 10:16)

When Jesus spoke Mt. 5:17, standing in front of the Jewish people that day, saying that He came to fulfill the Law, His standing there was (partial) fulfillment of the Law in that Mosaic Law spoke of a coming Messiah-Savior (e.g. Dt. 18:18-19), and there He was! The Savior was fulfilling a part of what the Law spoke of in just His being there. Of course, His healing of many people (Is. 35:1f.), both Jews and Gentiles, and His going to the Cross (Ps. 22) and His Resurrection (Is. 53:10-12) are also part of His fulfilling what the Law, the Prophets and the Psalms spoke of concerning the Messiah of Israel, but His use of fulfill does not mean that Mosaic Law is invalid for Christians. That's a lie straight from the Pit, funneled to you through Rome. Reject it and follow your Savior, and His Days and His Ways of living your life.

No Longer Under the Law

The biblical understanding of what it means to “not be under the Law” is that the Law’s just and righteous authority to condemn and punish sinners doesn’t effect Christians. The Law has no authority to punish or condemn a dead person. Death satisfies the Law’s righteous condemnation and punishment of a sinner (Rom. 8:1-4). Jesus took the Christian’s condemnation and punishment upon Himself and so, when a person is Born Again, the Christian becomes a new creature in Christ (2nd Cor. 5:17), with water baptism picturing death to self and being alive unto Jesus as that new creation. Now, “in Christ,” Christians can walk out their faith in Him the same Way He did—through all the rules of Moses that apply to them, without condemnation or punishment—they are no longer under the Law. Yet now, God’s Mosaic Law acts as His holy Standard for lifestyle in Christ—it is not discarded.

The Apostle Paul said to his Corinthian Christians:

“Therefore I urge you, imitate me. For this reason I have sent Timothy to you, who is my beloved and faithful son in the Lord, who will remind you of my ways in Christ, as I teach everywhere in every church..Imitate me, just as I also imitate Christ.” (1st Corinthians 4:16-17; 11:1 NKJV)

How could Paul imitate Christ if Paul kept and taught Sunday, Easter, Xmas and ate ham? Paul had to be observing and teaching Mosaic Law to his Gentile Christians (cf. 1st Cor. 7:19; 5:6-8). The Law not only reveals the full extent of what sin is, it also reveals how God desires of us to live (e.g. keep Passover). When a Christian sins,

“There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who do not walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit.” (Romans 8:1 NKJV)

The Christian is able to call upon the Blood of Jesus to forgive him—whether it’s a sin of lying or a sin of not keeping the Sabbath day holy. No one can keep the Law perfectly, but it’s one thing to strive “in the Spirit” to keep God’s holy Days and holy Ways—it’s quite another to teach that those holy Days and holy Ways don’t exist for Christians. Paul wrote in Romans:

“Therefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy and just and good...For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am carnal, sold under sin.” (Romans 7:12, 14 NKJV)

“For I delight in the Law of God according to the inward man. I thank God—through Jesus Christ our Lord...So then, with the mind I myself serve the law of God, but with the flesh the law of sin.” (Romans 7:22, 25 NKJV)

Strange that Paul would say such wonderful things about Mosaic Law if had been done away with at the Cross and he taught that Christians weren’t to keep it.

Come Out of Her, My People!

“Come out of Her, My people!” (Rev. 18:4) is not just a pithy phrase or an abstract saying to be taken lightly. The Holy Spirit is warning Christians about this satanic deception so that they can reject it, make this Divine Paradigm Shift and walk out their faith in Jesus His Way, so that they won’t suffer the consequences of a sinful, anti-Mosaic Law lifestyle.

You might think, “How could God have allowed Christianity, for 1,900 years, to walk in illicit SEX? It doesn’t make any sense.” On the contrary, God spoke of this very thing to Daniel—how Christians would be taken captive by the Pope:

“He (the Pope) shall speak blasphemous words against the Most High God. He (the Pope) shall persecute the saints (Christians) of the Most High God, and shall intend to change times and Law. Then the saints shall be given into his hand for a time and times and half a time.” (Daniel 7:25)

All the Reformers taught that the “He” of Daniel 7:25 was the Pope (i.e. Rome). Times speak of the Sabbath and the Feasts of Israel, and law is Mosaic Law. The saints (Christians) will be “given into his hand” is what has taken place for the last 1,900 years with Christians walking in Rome’s illicit SEX. Today the Holy Spirit is crying out to every Christian to come out of Her—the Harlot’s Days and Ways that negate God’s holy Mosaic Days and Ways.

Challenged?

I sincerely hope this has challenged you. I’d like to dialogue with you about it. Eventually, as Jesus persuades you from His Word and His Spirit about this Divine Paradigm Shift, you can begin teaching it to your Flock. Feel free to email me at AvramYeh@Gmail.com with any questions, concerns or comments you might have:

“Many nations shall come and say, ‘Come! Let us go up to the Mountain of Yahveh, to the House of the God of Jacob! He will teach us His Ways, and we shall walk in His Paths!’ For out of Zion the Law shall go forth, and the Word of Yahveh from Jerusalem!” (Micah 4:2)

If you’ve not been challenged then it’s because pride and ignorance blind you to correctly discerning God’s Word in this area of New Testament biblical lifestyle. Pride, in that you think Mosaic Law isn’t for Christians, but that illicit SEX is alright with Jesus. Ignorance, in that you really don’t know what Jesus desires of you in this area of Christian lifestyle.

The Lord Jesus says to you today, “You have a fine way of rejecting the commandment of God in order to keep your tradition” (Mark 7:9). You really need to pray about this, unless you like being a Pharisaic Christian and an honorary Catholic.

You are sinning against Jesus Christ and causing others to sin by your lifestyle and teaching of illicit SEX and your teaching against Mosaic Law. You have been put on notice. You cannot say that you have not been warned.

P.S. Below are some articles and books for you to read in order to further understand that illicit SEX is anti-God, and that Jesus wants every Christian to walk out his or her faith in Him through all the rules of Moses that apply to them:

1. A Snapshot of Church History and Mosaic Law is two pages and reveals that all Christians kept Sabbath and Passover for the first 90 years after the Resurrection.
2. Grace, Holiness and the Pharisaic Church is an in-depth article about illicit SEX and God's Ways.
3. Law 102 and Romans 14 and the Dietary Laws contain the 4 passages in the New Testament that Christians use to justify their eating of unclean animals. These two articles present the biblical interpretation of the passages, which create a tremendous breach in the Church's theological position that any animal, fish or bird can be eaten, which in turn reveals that Mosaic Law is for all Christians because if the Mosaic Dietary laws are still valid then Mosaic Law must be also because the Mosaic Dietary laws are part of Mosaic Law. This concept holds true for the Sabbath and the Feasts of Israel, etc.
4. Mosaic Law and the Ten is a statistical article which lists and analyzes all the places in Scripture where the term law/s or commandment/s speak of Mosaic Law or the Ten Commandments.
5. Nailed to the Cross—Col. 2:14 reveals what truly was nailed to the Cross.
6. Sabbath Denigration speaks of early so-called Church Fathers and their views on Mosaic Law and the Sabbath.
7. Sunday—The Catholic Sabbath reveals what Catholic theologians say about Sunday and Protestants keeping it, along with a number of Protestant Christians who came to realize that Sunday was not of the Lord.
8. Take the Quiz! Five Quick Questions about the New Testament. You're love it!
9. The Feasts of Israel and the Church is a short two page article. If the Feasts of Israel were nailed to the Cross, for they are part of Mosaic Law, why is Luke, a Gentile, using them in Acts to tell Theophilus, another Gentile Christian, when certain events transpired for Luke and/or Paul, etc.? Luke doesn't only write of them, he uses them as time markers, which drives home the point that Mosaic Law was first century Christianity's lifestyle.
10. The Feasts of Israel as Time Markers After the Resurrection is a full-blown article that delves into Luke's use of the Feasts as time markers in Acts, as well as his use of the Sabbaths, and the Sabbath in the Letter to the Hebrews, and also, the two passages in the New Testament that are used as proof texts by Christians to justify Sunday.
11. The Lifting of the Veil: Acts 15:20-21 by Avram Yehoshua. Acts 15:20-21 is the theological center of the New Testament that establishes Mosaic Law as God's lifestyle for every Christians by revealing that the four rules of James (v. 20) weren't given for table fellowship, as the Church wrongly teaches. The rules are a conceptual unit on pagan sacrificial-sexual idolatry. The Gentile Christians had to sever themselves from this gross idolatry in order for their faith in Jesus to be seen as genuine. These weren't the only rules for the Gentiles, but the most important, as worship of other gods along with Jesus would negate their salvation.
12. The Two Babylons—The Full Hislop is Alexander Hislop's Christian classic, and Dave Hunt's, A Woman Rides the Beast, complement one another as both reveal profound theological and historical reasons why the Roman Catholic Church is not a Christian church, but a highly deceptive, heretical, anti-biblical and anti-Jesus organization.
13. The Two Triangles of the NT is a two page article that proves that illicit SEX is not of God, and that Jesus wants all Christians to walk in His Days and His Ways.⁹
