Shalom Avram,

I just want to let you know that I have received 'The Lifting of the Veil.' Thank you very much. I cannot wait to start reading it, but will save it for my visit to my daughter in Pakistan next week.

I have read through quite an amount of your articles and found them so inspiring and (educational, informative, trainable—not sure of the word in English).

Enjoy your Sabbath tomorrow and may you be blessed,

Dear Avram & Ruti;

Greetings in the precious name of Jesus. Thank you so much for this message. I'm a 'new subscriber' on your email list.

I wanted to write and thank you for all the articles and writings that you've made available on your web site. I can't begin to tell you what a blessing it has been to make copies, put in a note book and share with my husband during our devotions after the morning meal. Sometimes we are still studying until 1:30 in the afternoon.

For years, I've heard many things taught in the churches that I just felt in my heart were wrong. I know there was a void in my life as I continued to pray and search the scriptures. In answer to prayer, a friend sent your web site to me just before Christmas. As I read your teaching on this subject, my husband and I were in total agreement. We did not celebrate Christmas this year, nor last year.

God bless you,

Yvonne Gerhart

As believers without messianic fellowship, I want to thank you with all my heart this morning, Avram, for your passover article and Ruti's recipes which we will certainly try this year!

For many weeks I have been crying out for nurturance of our messianic faith and so quietly the Lord reminded me that Avram is always there and your writings are such an enrichment.

May you be blessed today in all you set your hand to do and do it all to His glory.

Dear Avram ~

I received your address from an email friend, and she has sent me your last 2 emails. Please sign me on for future emails.

I also really appreciate your website Seed of Abraham. The article on "Goodbye Messianic Judaism!"

speaks loud and clear to my heart.

I am a Jewish believer in Messiah and presently connected to a typical American MJ congregation that has “lost the way of Messiah” for rote and traditions and false prosperity. The Lord has placed me there so to see and observe these things, as well as to speak HIS truth on the matter. I am being hard-pressed of the LORD in my heart and in my life to soon (NOW!) give warnings for the people to repent of “playing synagogue” and to return to the scriptures and to a “first love” faith in action. I know this will be hard to do so. Please pray for me!

B'ruchim v'shalom b' Yeshua Meshicaynu,

Sherry

Your articles are fantastic. I am 68 years old & I have been blown back & forth with every wind of doctrine.

I believe in Yeshua, but sometimes I feel that I should go back to Judaism. I have never been observant & sad to say I do eat pork. The church I attend says the Mosaic Law is over. This is the teaching by Arnold Fruchtenbaum who I respect. How can I stop going back & forth & stay focused on Yeshua? Also, since I cannot read Hebrew, what bible translation do you recommend?

thank you,

Thank you for your reply...I just ordered 3 copies of your “The Lifting of the Veil” book yesterday. I enjoyed the website introduction and overview of it. It whet my appetite for more. Can't wait to start reading the book when it arrives.

Bless you for your insight, wisdom, inspiration, and clarification of “hard” topics. Those of us who do not know Hebrew and were not raised in Jewish homes are at a disadvantage. We depend on faithful men such as yourself to help us undo wrong (even if innocent and done in ignorance) and error that seminaries propagate.

I have learned over the years that when a person asks, seeks, and knocks...God is faithful to reveal truth. That is, if a person is willing to consider “truth” that is uncomfortable and outside their tradition.

Dear Avram,

Just purchased your book and am anxiously awaiting it's arrival. I have been blessed by your emails and website now for about 2 years.

Thanks and God Bless!

I have had my whole world turned around recently by God opening my eyes on many different subjects. One of them being that the church I have been involved in for 25 years is polluted. The christian faith in America is lacking in hebrew understanding along with a myriad of other problems.

I recently decided to go to a Messianic congregation to become more acquainted with the Hebrew roots. I did some research about the movement and came across your article about leaving the movement and why. I agree!

What you wrote spoke to me on many levels. I am in no mans land also. I live in Orange, California, USA. My soul is aching to become closer to Yeshua my Savior but there isn't any congregation that I know of in my area that has come to believe as we do.

I am a gentile who is grafted in and I need your prayers and your help if you can!

Can you recommend a book that will help me to understand the Hebrew thought as I read and learn about the Torah?

I am dirty with the pollution of my culture with it's limited understanding and down right deception within the churches and outside of it.

The days are evil and the clock is ticking. Yeshua is coming and I fear that I may disqualify myself because of my ignorance.

Please pray for me and ask our God if he would use you, my fellow adopted brother, to guide me to right understanding and relationship with Him!

I will not be going to that congregation and prayerfully wait for a reply.

I will remember you in my prayers and ask that God will continue to show you THE WAY.

God bless you

God said through Ezekial that even if these three men asked (Daniel, Job and Noah), they would only be able to save themselves. That's a pretty stout statement about the kind of people the Lord calls righteous! (By a pretty serious witness, too!)

For whatever reason, that's what's going on with you...the Job thing. He of course, wouldn't tell me why. He didn't tell Job until Elihu had finished his 'dissertation.'

I'm always amazed at the things you write because they're so heavy. If you had a class in college you were teaching it would be 'The Way 505—Honors,' with a disclaimer on the door that said,

'Caution! The material you are about to hear may melt your brain...immature Christians should wear ear protection.'

He's given you this powerful gift of teaching/exhortation that is amazing. I think if you were to have a powerful gifting of prophesy added onto that, you might fall into a trap of pride? And, the morale of this story is, by the way...that the Lord counts you among those men that Ezekiel mentions.

Shalom, Avram

I love your articles. The ones I have read are the most comprehensive and forthright interpretations of the Word that I have seen. Your story of Sam the Rock Thrower is especially moving and I greatly appreciate your exposition of The Alef-Tav. I hear Messianic teachers who decry the use of Kabbalah, but who nonetheless proclaim that 'et' (or 'ate') is Yeshua. I don't know of another word in any language that has no inherent meaning, but is declared to have one. When the word 'shoe' appears it ALWAYS means footwear. It does not mean footwear 99% of the time and then magically mean a blade of grass 1% of the time.

Thanks,

Actually I have ordered 3 or 4 of your books The Lifting the Veil. It is good, very 'deep' and meaty...not light reading for the faint hearted.

The depth of your articles on the website and your book are truly a blessing.

This is in response to the article: Tovia Singer--Levite Gone Amuck

This is one of the best writings I have ever seen on this subject, thank you for providing what Yehovah gave you to write. We need more of this to defend against the satanic anti-missionaries. Thank you so much.

Shalom Avram,

How are you and Ruti these days?? We trust well. I just wanted to write and say well done on your article re Rabbi Tovia Singer. He certainly has a large audience and 'his' ant-missionary branches are very active. May you continue to fight the good fight and may Yahweh bless you both in abundance.

Dear Avram,

We know that Tovia is a wolf in sheep's clothing. Thank you for sharing your insights. I will save them if we come across someone who follows his teachings, we will share your notes.

Shalom & mega blessings,

This is sooooo awesome.

You are very discerning and brilliant to have picked up all of Tovia's errors.
